Sargeant X Comrade – Take Me Higher (Who Let The Devil In)

Written by Y. Sargeant & E. Bykovets

Intro:

(This passage was taken from an Old Testament Bible verse)

"My brothers and sisters… be not deceived by wolves in sheep's clothing.

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood

But against the rulers, the authorities, the cosmic powers over this present darkness"

First Verse:

Ever since the old testament

He's been testing my temperament

All dressed up and he's elegant

But I said: "Who let the devil in?"

I knock him down like a bowling pin

I strike him down with a javelin

I toss him into the lion's den

I throw him into the frying pan

I said: "Go back to the fire" x2

Chorus:

Higher… Oh Lord take me higher x4

Verse 2:

The situation is delicate

When all the facts become relevant

We're in the hot seat, it's evident

And I said "Who let the devil in?"

I knock him down like a bowling pin

I stomp him down like an elephant

I knock him into the lion's den

I throw him back in the frying pan

I said.. "Go back to the fire" x2

"Go, go, go" x 2

Chorus:

Higher… Oh Lord, take me higher. X8
